The Vermont Roll of Honor.

Sample pages are before us of an elegant Illustrated work with the above title which is now in preparation. It is to be, when completed, a collection of biographical sketches of Vermont soldiers who served in the war of the rebeilion, illustrated with portraits of the same, The sketches are now being compiled under the supervision of Gen. T. S. Peck, the widely known and popular adjutant general of the State, whose name is a guaranty for the high character of the work. It is to be published by the Vermont Publishing company, whose chief egent and representative is Comrade E. W. Phess Association, on the finest glossy pied by Heeman, Hunt & Co., in course of number of Vermont's best known soldiers, time handling dry goods only. He made a which have been stready made for the work, fortune and retired from active business in are striking likenesses, and the accompany ing biographical sketches are full of facts of high personal interest and value.

This "Roll of Honor" will be equal to any that has been issued for any State, Opportunity will be widely offered to the erment veterans throughout the State to placed on permanent record for their posterity; and many hundreds of them will and secure copies of the volume.
